

THE IPPERWASH INQUIRY

THE HONOURABLE SIDNEY B. LINDEN, COMMISSIONER

This is an archive of the Ipperwash Inquiry website, which was last updated in June 2007 and will not be updated further.

If you have difficulty accessing any material, please contact the ministry.

Parties with Standing

Standing for both Parts I and II of the Inquiry has been granted to the following parties:

1. The Estate of Dudley George and George Family Group;
2. Aazhoodena and George Family Group;
3. Residents of Aazhoodena;
4. Chippewas of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation;
5. The Province of Ontario;
6. Michael D. Harris;
7. Charles Harnick;
8. Robert Runciman;
9. Marcel Beaubien;
10. Ontario Provincial Police;
11. Ontario Provincial Police Association;
12. Chief Coroner of the Province of Ontario;
13. Municipality of Lambton Shores;
14. Chiefs of Ontario; and
15. Aboriginal Legal Services of Toronto.

Standing for Part I only of the Inquiry has been granted to the following individuals:

1. Christopher D. Hodgson; and
2. Debbie Hutton.

Standing for Part II only of the Inquiry has been granted to the following parties:

1. Union of Ontario Indians;
2. Chippewas of Nawash Unceded First Nation;
3. Nishnawbe-Aski Police Services Board;
4. Centre Ipperwash Community Association;
5. Aboriginal Peoples Council of Toronto;
6. Law Union of Ontario;
7. African Canadian Legal Clinic;
8. Amnesty International Canada;
9. Canadian Civil Liberties Association;
10. Mennonite Central Committee Ontario;
11. George Simpson and Rowland Carey; and
12. The Ontario Federation of Individual Rights and Equality.

NOTE: This document is a reproduction of a framed page from the Ipperwash Inquiry website that could not otherwise be printed in full. Produced Feb 27/09:

ORIGINAL: The Ipperwash Inquiry - Parties with Standing

<http://www.attorneygeneral.jus.gov.on.ca/inquiries/ipperwash/pws/index.html>